

Senior Parking Design Request

All designs must adhere to moral and ethical standards. No political statements, images or symbols may be used in your design. Any drawing that includes unrecognizable words, pictures, sayings, abbreviations, etc. will be denied. The senior will lose the privilege of painting their spot. When submitting your design, keep these standards in mind and only submit a drawing that includes widely recognizable and appropriate images. Designs that are not approved may not be resubmitted. Before submitting, you may contact Mrs. Parks for guidance on your design if you are unsure of appropriateness.

*All seniors must describe the rationale of their design on the back of this form. Please be very specific.

Please mark which category your design falls under:
