

Celebrating Academic Excellence at Honors Convocation

The Holy Cross High School Administration and Faculty honored students for academic excellence displayed during the 2017-2018 school year at the annual Honors Convocation. Led by Director of Guidance Catherine Xeller, teachers proudly acknowledged the achievements of each student to an enthusiastic audience of parents, friends and family members.

Following the distribution of awards, faculty member and National Honor Society Moderator Caroline Flaminio '79 led the induction of the 2018 Oronoque Chapter of the National Honor Society. Keynote speaker and special guest, Brigadier General John Lawlor, Jr. '83 was inducted as an honorary member.

Wen Ting Zheng '18 to Attend MIT

Holy Cross High School is proud to announce that Wen Ting Zheng '18 will attend Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in the fall. She was accepted through Early Action in December 2017 and made her final decision to attend this past spring. She will officially begin in late August for pre-orientation programs.

"I chose to attend MIT because my major will be in Bio-engineering," said Wen Ting. "MIT seemed to be a logical choice for that field. I also like the location. There are several opportunities for research internships in the Boston area." (Read More)

The Connecticut Alumni Regional Reception

Alumni spanning the decades from the 1970s to the 2010s gathered for the Connecticut Alumni Regional Reception on May 16, 2018. The event was co-chaired by Vincent Graziano '89 and John Zinno '85. Interim President Amadeo Rinaldi and members of the Advancement Office were on hand to welcome to the alumni and to give them a brief update on the state of the school. It was a great evening of re-connection, networking and reminiscing for all.
